Council of Asian Pacific Americans proudly presents “Splendor of the East - 2015”

For Immediate Release

Northville, MI – On Friday, May 15, 2015 at 7:30 pm, the Council of Asian Pacific Americans (CAPA) will host its popular annual signature event, the “Splendor of the East - 2015” at the Ford Community & Performing Arts Center at 15801 Michigan Avenue, Dearborn, MI 48126.

This year’s event theme is: “Where Dreams Begin”, an Exotic Voyage where the East meets the West capturing diversity through fashion, wedding ceremonies, cultural courtship, traditions, cross-cultural influences and much more. An extraordinary collaboration of cultural depictions through dance and music from China, India, Japan, Korea, Philippines, Polynesia, Taiwan and other non-Asian Pacific countries. Where Dreams Begin will entice your senses with both a traditional and contemporary composition of artistry.

The Asian Pacific American community in Michigan is growing in size and strength, contributing to the State’s economy, diversity and vitality. Your support for our initiatives and events such as Splendor of the East is greatly appreciated, and we hope you can join us on May 15, 2015 for this fascinating journey into the world of love and dreams!
