Northville, MI – On Saturday, October 22nd, 2016, Council of Asian Pacific Americans (CAPA) will host the “2016 Statewide Asian Pacific Americans Leadership Summit XIV” at GM Vehicle Engineering Center, 30001 Van Dyke, Warren, MI 48090. CAPA (www.capa-mi.org) brings Asian Pacific Americans together with the community at large through our culture, education and community services. The Summit offers a unique opportunity to network with the Asian Pacific American leaders, business leaders, community leaders, members, and young adults.

This year’s event will offer an interactive workshop on “Speak with Power” to help you enhance your personal effectiveness by getting tips on speaking powerfully with minimal stress. It will also include table discussions on topics important to the APA community in Michigan.

The workshop will be conducted by Sachi Koto, an executive coach who works extensively in the areas of communications, public speaking, leadership, executive presence, accent reduction, media training and diversity. With her 30+ years of on-air work as an anchor at CNN, Japan Cable Television Network in Tokyo and other media outlets, Sachi will guide you to attain the next level of sophistication in career development through speech, presentations, executive presence and leadership coaching. Admission is $10 (regular), $5 (students with ID) and $80 (groups of 10). Continental breakfast and box lunch is included.

The Asian Pacific American community in Michigan is growing in size and strength, contributing to the State’s economy, diversity and vitality. Your support for our initiatives and events such as the Leadership Summit XIV is greatly appreciated. We hope you can join us on October 22nd, 2016 for this workshop.
