Council of Asian Pacific Americans Announced 2017 Scholars Award Recipients

Northville, MI. – The Council of Asian Pacific Americans (CAPA) is proud to present the CAPA Scholars Award to aspiring leaders of Asian Pacific heritage who have demonstrated academic excellence and outstanding accomplishments in community service. A long-standing tradition of CAPA, the Award, in the form of a scholarship, recognizes and propels young leaders to contribute to and make a positive impact on the Asian Pacific American community at large.

This year, three outstanding young leaders received the CAPA Scholars Award at the Splendor of the East Annual Gala on May 13, 2017. Please join us in congratulating this year's awardees in their achievement. Attending higher education institutions in Michigan starting this fall, they will continue to serve and represent the Asian Pacific American community with pride!

The recipients for the 2017 CAPA Scholars Award are:

- Ms. Maegan Cedro
- Mr. Mahfujul Haque
- Mr. Oliver Li

CAPA congratulates these fine young students and wishes them success in their future.

CAPA is a non-profit, 501(c) (3) organization that works to unify all Asian Pacific American communities throughout the State of Michigan. With a guiding motto of "diversity is our strength," its mission is to unite Asian Pacific Americans and the community at large through culture, education, and community service.
