2012 STATEWIDE ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN LEADERSHIP SUMMIT X

For Immediate Release

August 29, 2012

The Council of Asian Pacific Americans (CAPA) in collaboration with various areas of the Asian Pacific Associations across Michigan will host a statewide leadership conference on Saturday, November 10, 2012, addressing issues together to bring about positive social and economic change. The Tenth annual Asian Pacific American Leadership Summit will be held from 9:00 AM - 2:00 PM at the GM Vehicle Engineering Center located at 30001 Van Dyke Street, Warren, Michigan 48092.

The 2012 Leadership Summit provides a forum for community leaders of the Asian Pacific American (APA) organizations, leaders in state and local governments, university faculties and students and other aspiring youth leaders to positively work together the issues that are of most concern to the APA community.

This all day event will be highlighted with a presentation by the keynote speaker, Virinder K. Moudgil, PhD, President of Lawrence Technological University who will explore the theme of "Working Together Across Generations", and the contributions of the APA community.

Please contact Arcie Gemino, CAPA president, for more information at (586) 214-2597 or email arcie@capa-mi.org. For additional details about the conference or registration, please visit the CAPA website at <http://www.capa-mi.org>.
