Call for Applications:
2014 Scholars Award Provided by the Council of Asian Pacific Americans (CAPA)

The Council of Asian Pacific Americans (CAPA) is pleased to announce a call for applications for its 2014 Scholars Award. This prestigious award was established by CAPA to encourage the educational advancement of APA youth in Michigan and to foster youth involvement and leadership in the APA Community.

The 2014 Scholars Award are intended for full-time high school seniors who will attend an institution of higher education in the State of Michigan and who will continue to reside in Michigan. Eligible candidates must have an Asian Pacific American (APA) heritage and should be willing to serve on CAPA's Youth Committee to give back to the APA community. The winner(s) will receive a $1,000 Scholars Award at CAPA's Splendor of the East reception on May 17, 2014. The recipient(s) will be chosen by CAPA's Education Committee, which will base its selection upon applicants' potential to provide outstanding APA leadership and/or community service in Michigan.

To apply for the 2014 Scholars Award, eligible candidates must complete an application form available on the CAPA website: <http://capa-mi.org/scholars-award/>

The deadline for applications is February 10, 2014. Completed applications must be submitted by email to scholarsaward@capa-mi.org. For more information about the 2014 Scholars Award, please write to CAPA Education Committee at scholarsaward@capa-mi.org.

CAPA is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization that works to unify all Asian Pacific American communities throughout the State of Michigan. With a guiding motto of "diversity is our strength," its mission is to unite Asian Pacific Americans and the community at large through culture, education, and community service.
