Council of Asian Pacific Americans proudly presents Youth Leadership Summit 2019

September 12, 2019

For Immediate Release:

On Saturdays, October 5, 2019 (9am – 12pm) & October 12, 2019 (9am – 3pm), the Council of Asian Pacific Americans (CAPA) will host the “Youth Leadership Summit 2019” at Macomb Intermediate School District, 44001 Garfield Road, Clinton Township, MI 48038.

CAPA (www.capa-mi.org) brings Asian Pacific Americans together with the community at large through our cultural, educational and community services.

Goals:

- To provide middle and high school students opportunity to explore different fields of leadership
- To offer middle and high school students information about various career paths
- To encourage middle and high school students to become independent thinkers as future leaders

The event will feature:

- Career Cruising – opportunity for students to meet with professionals from different career fields
- Global Leadership – offering students strategies to become future global leaders
- Youth Mentoring – supporting students through peer mentorship

Admission: $25 for CAPA members
$35 for non CAPA members

Who can register: Middle and High School students
