SPLendor OF THE EAST CULTURAL SHOW

“EVERYTHING OLD IS NEW AGAIN”

The Council of Asian Pacific Americans (CAPA) proudly presents its signature event, “Splendor of the East.” CAPA’s much anticipated annual showcase will take place on Saturday May 16, 2020 at the Ford Community & Performing Arts Center at 15801 Michigan Avenue, Dearborn, MI 48126.

This year’s theme for “Splendor of the East” is “Everything Old is New Again” and will feature music, dances and other performances representing various cultural groups from the Asian-Pacific region. As CAPA commemorates 20 years of service in Michigan through culture, education and volunteerism, the program will be a spectacular homage to the past and a celebration of a prosperous future!

Tickets for CAPA’s “Splendor of the East” are $25 for general admission or $15 for students can be purchased in advance at www.capa-mi.org. Group purchases of 10 tickets or more can avail of a 10% discount. Tickets will also be sold at the door for $35 on the night of the show. Additionally, VIP tickets are available for $100 and include an exclusive pre-show VIP Reception.

Doors open at 4:30 PM for VIP Registration and the show will start at 7:30 PM.

CAPA’s signature events, including “Splendor of the East,” continue to demonstrate the growing strength of the Asian Pacific American communities and their increasing contributions to Michigan’s economy, diversity and vitality.

Council of Asian Pacific Americans hopes you will join us on May 16, 2020 for our wonderful cultural showcase - “Splendor of the East!”
