

CAPA ANNUAL LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

LEADING FROM YOUR CULTURAL VALUES

VIRTUAL PROGRAM IN HONOR OF ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Have you ever wondered why you are the way you are and why you do what you do? In this session, we'll discuss and explore the relationship between values, behaviors, and perceptions along with the core values that most strongly influence you.

Join us as we hear from

Jaspreet Singh, Vice President Corporate Services of DTE Energy, who is responsible for strategic management of the company's procurement, supplier performance management, warehousing, fleet, facilities, and real estate organizations. Jas will kick us off with his leadership journey.

And our Keynote Speaker:

Dug Song, CSO for Cisco Security and former co-founder and CEO of Cisco's acquired company Duo Security, is widely recognized as a pioneer in cybersecurity circles. He built the first commercial network anomaly detection system and has successfully launched a number of leading technology companies. Dug will share his perspective on leading from his own cultural values and his amazing leadership journey.

Followed by a workshop by Linda Akutagawa that includes:

- Increase awareness of the influence and impact of Asian cultural or other core values on behaviors and potentially resulting perceptions and interpretations
- Reflect on balancing cultural values to lead more authentically.
- Identify leadership enhancing or leadership limiting behaviors to increase effectiveness and navigate the corporate workplace

Linda Akutagawa, President and CEO of Leadership Education for Asian Pacifics (LEAP), where she is responsible for LEAP's strategic direction, sustainability, relationships and collaborations.

CAPA LEADERSHIP SUMMIT SPEAKERS

KEYNOTE Dug Song, CSO for Cisco Security and former co-founder and CEO of Cisco's acquired company Duo Security, is widely recognized as a pioneer in cybersecurity circles. He built the first commercial network anomaly detection system and has successfully launched a number of leading technology companies. As a cyber-security expert and a voice in the information security industry, Song is often quoted on cybersecurity issues by international media and appears onstage at industry events worldwide. In 2020, Song and his wife started the Song Foundation. The foundation invests in innovative people and organizations improving the quality of life for all in Southeast Michigan while building a more just and equitable world. Song also serves on the executive board of Wallace House, home of the Knight-Wallace Fellowships for journalists, and on the advisory board of Venture for America in Detroit.

KEYNOTE Jaspreet Singh, Vice President Corporate Services of DTE Energy, is responsible for strategic management of the company's procurement, supplier performance management, warehousing, fleet, facilities, and real estate organizations. In addition, he leads implementation of environmental sustainability projects within DTE's buildings, fleet vehicles and supply chain. He is also responsible for the company's local and diverse supplier initiatives. Singh is passionate about supplier diversity and serves on the board of directors for Diversity and Inclusion and Global Ties Detroit, a non-profit organization that hosts international exchange programs on behalf of the U.S. Department of State and other government organizations, universities and think tanks that promote global exchange and citizen diplomacy.

GUEST SPEAKER Linda Akutagawa, President and CEO of Leadership Education for Asian Pacifics (LEAP), where she is responsible for LEAP's strategic direction, sustainability, relationships and collaborations. A passionate social entrepreneur for over 25 years and beneficiary of LEAP's leadership programming, Ms. Akutagawa is an advocate for diversity and believer in the value and urgent need for diverse, equitable, and inclusive leadership. She has dedicated herself to continuing the cycle of leadership development and inspiring Asian and Pacific Islanders to step up to leadership roles across sectors, industries, and communities. She is a nationally recognized speaker and facilitator on leadership, diversity, equity, and inclusion, nonprofits, and board governance.
