Council of Asian Pacific Americans Proudly Presents
"A Petal's Journey"

Oakland University, MI - The Council of Asian Pacific Americans is thrilled to announce its upcoming event, Splendor of the East (SOE), a visual journey through the many cultures of Asian Pacific Americans. This captivating event will take place on May 31, 2025, at the Oakland Center, Oakland University, located at 312 Meadow Brook Road, Rochester, MI 48309.

SOE promises to be an evening filled with vibrant performances and a celebration of the rich diversity within the Asian Pacific American community. The event will commence at 6 PM and conclude at 9 PM, with a VIP networking session at 5 PM.

The theme for this year's SOE is "A Petal's Journey," where artistry and cultural intertwine. Through mesmerizing dance, music, and other performances, we will explore the delicate beauty of a petal, symbolizing growth, transformation, and resilience. Each movement, note, and word will reflect the beauty and elegance of various cultures and traditions of Asian Pacific American communities. Immerse yourself in this enchanting experience that celebrates the journey of not just a petal, but of all who seek to be mesmerized and captivated by dance performances and musical showcases. The stage will come alive with the vibrant of talents.

Splendor of the East is open to the public, and admission is free. VIP reception tickets are available for $50 per individual. This event aims to foster cultural understanding, promote diversity, and celebrate the contributions of Asian Pacific Americans to our society. It provides a unique platform for individuals from all backgrounds to come together, appreciate the richness of different cultures, and build connections within the community.

We invite everyone to join us on May 31, 2025, at the Oakland Center, Oakland University for an unforgettable evening of cultural immersion and celebration. Mark your calendars and be prepared to be captivated by the beauty of Asian Pacific American cultures.
