Council of Asian Pacific Americans proudly presents “2025 Leadership Summit”

For Immediate Release

Ypsilanti, MI – On Saturday, October 11th, 2025, from 10 AM to 2 PM, the Council of Asian Pacific Americans (CAPA) will host the 2025 Leadership Summit at Eastern Michigan University’s McKenny Hall, located at 878 W Cross St, Ypsilanti, MI 48197. CAPA (www.capa-mi.org) is dedicated to uniting Asian Pacific Americans with the broader community through culture, education, and community services.

The theme for this year’s summit is “Paving the Way for the Next Generation Women Leaders.” This inspiring event will focus on empowering and uplifting future women leaders. Attendees will have the opportunity to hear powerful stories, connect with like-minded individuals, and engage in meaningful dialogue that fosters cultural reflection, collaboration, and leadership development.

The summit is open to all - undergraduate students, young entrepreneurs, novice leaders from every field, and anyone considering leading an organization or starting their own company. Admission to the summit is Free!
