FOR IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE

The Council of Asian Pacific Americans (CAPA) is a nonprofit organization committed to strengthening communities through cultural celebration, education, and collaboration, guided by its enduring motto: Diversity is Our Strength.

CAPA Proudly Presents

Splendor of the East 2026 - “It’s a Small World” Celebrating 25th Anniversary Annual Signature Event at Warren, Michigan on Friday May 1, 2026.

Commemorating the inaugural launch of Splendor of the East in May 2001. This landmark event honors a quarter century of cultural excellence, community unity, and artistic expression.

Inspired by an It’s a Small World theme, Splendor of the East 2026 invites guests on a global journey featuring diverse ethnic performances and immersive cultural table displays. The evening shows the beauty of traditions from around the world while emphasizing shared values, harmony, and cultural pride.

The event will take place on Friday, May 1, 2026, beginning at 6:00 PM at Larsa Palace, Warren, Michigan. Guests will be welcomed to the elegant venue that sets to experience a sophisticated evening of live performances, vibrant costumes, and cultural storytelling in an elegant setting.

Event Experience:

Guests will enjoy a carefully curated program of music, dance, and visual arts representing multiple cultures. Select ticket holders will receive full dining experience, including plated dinner service, desserts, and open bar from 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM, enhancing the celebratory atmosphere of this anniversary year.
